

One Day Presentation and Demo on Energy Psychology

(for USJ Rotary Club and its shake-holders committed towards creating self-empowered communities)

Introduction

USJ Rotary has been active in various community projects, having its own vast experiences and networks, including collaborative effort with large corporations.

USJ Rotary is interested to explore how Energy Psychology can help to further enhance their efforts to reach out to the larger communities and empower them.

Energy Psychology is a new empowerment tool in Malaysia, promoted by QLS (QuaSyLaTic Learning System) to individuals, public, communities, and corporations.

A one day presentation and demonstration on the use of Energy Psychology is arranged between USJ Rotary Club and QLS, for appreciation, evaluation and further decision making by USJ Rotary Club (and its collaborative corporate partners) to implement the empowerment process in a more structured and systematic manner to serve and empower the larger communities.

Objective of the 1-day Presentation and Demo on EP

- To have some appreciation of Energy Psychology (the What and How), especially for decision makers (USJ Rotary Club and Collaborative Corporations)
- To have some experiences on Energy Psychology being applied through demo.
- To better appreciate the enormous potentials of Energy Psychology applications (from the above) that gives motivation, clarity what may be the outcomes when the actual 2-day Energy Psychology training is conducted with disciplined practice by learners
